

ROBERT SMITH

ETL Consultant I

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

A senior ETL Consultant Architect and senior administrator with very strong professional background in Data warehouse domain and over 11 years of industry experience in the software engineering, processes and methodologies, and management specializing in: Expertise and working experience in establishing the process methodology standards at all phases of an Enterprise Data warehouse.

EXPERIENCE

ETL Consultant I

ABC Corporation - SEPTEMBER 2003 - FEBRUARY 2004

- Deliver business intelligence and data warehouse solutions for a diverse set of internal customers.
- Assist with reviewing and confirming the technical feasibility of integration development objects based on integration principals and best practices.
- Recommend solutions to address solution gaps and assist with estimate development.
- Develop of overall solution approach; design, develop, maintain and support ETL/ETL integrations; create technical documentation and build instructions to onsite and offsite global teams and assist with deploying and validating the technical solutions.
- Design and develop data warehouse platforms that conform to consistent methodologies, standards and industry best practices;
- Participate in designing an overall logical and physical data warehouse and data-mart data model and data architectures to support business requirements;
- Develop and maintain SQL, PL/SQL codes for Oracle database.

ETL Consultant

Delta Corporation - 1998 - 2003

- Card Acceptance and Processing Network for Merchant Submissions will enable merchant submissions re-engineering to establish the technology framework .
- Chicago Hands on Datastage7.5.2, Business Objects6.0 as ETL Consultant with Future View Financial Services Limited Chicago ETL Consultant for the .
- Responsible for ETL design and development of the above mentioned systems and to perform unit tests.
- Liaising with the Functional Analysts for the respective source systems and is the single point of contact for all the ETL issues.
- Insurance / Re-insurance Founded in November 2001, Allied World originally consisted of four employees located in a small office.
- Since then, the company has built a reputation as a strong supplier of